

Take your EXPERIENCE to a NEW Industry!

Make the Transition!

- Are you looking to transition from the Military to the civilian job force?
- Are you safety focused and task oriented?
- Do you enjoy working with a team in a structured and process oriented environment?
- Do you want hands-on experience with industry leading valve testing technology?

CRANE

Why Crane Nuclear

- Earn a full year's salary by working just four to six months through overtime and per diem.
- Equal opportunity for career advancement through participation in industry leading training.
- Opportunity to travel domestically and internationally to various nuclear power plants.
- Work with a professional team and experience industry comradery.
- Support one of the greenest methods of power generation.
- Work for a company founded in 1855 on strict ethical values focused on honesty and fairness.

If you have experience as:

With Crane, you could work as:

Which leads to a position as:

Navy Enlisted Classification:

MM, MR, AD, AS, GSM, CM, SW, UT, 4540

Marines Occupational Field:

13xx, 18xx, 60xx, 61xx, 62xx, 63xx, 64xx series

Army MOS:

11M, 12Q, 12D, 15xx, 91xx, 94xx series

Air Force Speciality Code:

2A series

Valve Technician

Responsible for valve disassembly, inspection, blue check, critical measurements, parts replacement, valve lapping equipment setup and operation, hand lapping and re-assembly of gate, globe, butterfly, check and ball valves; packing removal, installation, and consolidation.

Lead Technician

Valve Supervisor

Navy Enlisted Classification:

MM (NUC), MM, EM (NUC), EM, GSE, AD, AE, GM, MT

Marines Occupational Field:

06xx, 084x, 11xx, 13xx, 352x series

Army MOS:

15xx, 18xx series

Air Force Speciality Code:

2A series

Actuator Technician (Motor Operated Valves)

Responsible for actuator / component disassembly, inspection, lubrication, re-assembly, actuator removal and re-installation, actuator wiring terminations and determinations; performs actuator limit and torque switch setting / adjustments, rigging, torqueing, and packing adjustments.

Field Service Technician (MOV)

Field Service Engineer (MOV)

Testing Supervisor (MOV)

Navy Enlisted Classification:

ET (NUC), ET, AT

Marines Occupational Field:

28xx, 59xx series

Army MOS:

25L, 94H, 15xx series

Air Force Speciality Code:

2P

Instrumentation & Calibration Technician

Responsible for the removal and installation of instrumentation for mechanical maintenance work; performs instrument setup and calibration to meet plant specifications, able to perform solenoid replacement, and troubleshooting of instrumentation.

Field Service Technician (AOV)

Field Service Engineer (AOV)

Testing Supervisor (AOV)

Contact us: www.cranenuclear.com

E-mail: work@cranenuclear.com

+1 770-424-6343

© 2016

